VISUAL AND FUNCTIONAL TRANSFORMATIONS OF EXISTING BUILDINGS IN THE ENVIRONMENT OF MODERN CITY

Abstract. This article deals with the buildings which visual form or functional con-sistence was changed a lot during its exploitation. The development of visual and functional transformations becomes more and more common in European countries and in Russia...

Key words: renovation; reconstruction; transformation; history; “time mystification”; visual semantic impulse.

1. Historical analysis of building transformation. Same transformation events took place in the past, strengthened in certain historical and cultural periods [1, с. 45]. Such historical periods include the "dark ages" in the Middle Ages, the beginning of the New Time period (the beginning of industrialization), postmodernism (the completion of industrialization) and the modern period (Scheme 1).

Схема 1. Периоды активизации, «всплесков» реновации зданий в истории архитектуры

Conclusion. Ascertained historical types of building transformation show presence all types of historical transformation among modern examples of building renovation....
