Study programs for exchange students

① KUGF curriculum

The purposes of the KUGF curriculum are to improve language proficiency and communication skills, develop a high level of cross-cultural understanding, and foster global leadership skills. The curriculum can be categorized into 2 courses. Please refer to KUGF Course Guide for contents of the courses and language requirements.

1. Global Frontier and Skill Up for Studying Abroad

These courses are taught entirely in English and are open to both Japanese and international students. Global Frontier courses consist of 8 Modules. The purpose of Skill Up for Studying Abroad courses is to acquire English language skills.

2. Japanese as a Second Language

These courses are to support international students with Japanese language studies. We provide various levels of classes, from basic to advanced. You will be taking an appropriate level of Japanese classes after a language placement test done by a Japanese teaching specialist. We offer not only Japanese language courses but also courses that provide basic knowledge on Japan, introduce cultures of Japanese companies, business Japanese and courses that place you in a real company or an organization.

② Specialist subjects (courses offered by other faculties)

Exchange students whose Japanese language ability is sufficiently high as proven on the Japanese language placement tests taken after their arrival in Japan can enroll in classes of these faculties.

Students can learn a wide variety of subjects from general cultural subjects to specialist ones through these courses, held in the 13 faculties of Kansai University. These are studied in Japanese and students can expect an improvement in their level of Japanese proficiency as well as learning at a higher level of specialty.

*The following is used as a guideline for the level of Japanese proficiency required to enroll in specialist subjects.

*The following is used as a guideline for the level of Japanese proficiency required to enroll in undergraduate courses.

Test Name	Reference Score
JLPT (Japanese Language Proficiency Test)	N2 or higher
J.TEST (Test of Practical Japanese)	Level C or higher
CEFR	B2 or higher

Tax will be added separately to the home stay expenses. (8% of the expense until September 2019, 10% of the expense from October 2019.)

Apartment

The costs depend on the apartment, but on an average, it costs more than 40,000 yen a month to rent an apartment around Kansai University.

Health insurance

It is not obligatory for students to purchase medical insurance at this stage, so purchasing the medical insurance is optional.

If the students would like to purchase the medical insurance, they can buy it in Russia or in Japan.

If they choose to purchase it in Japan, our affiliated company, Kandai Pensee Co., Ltd. can introduce the insurance called "Comprehensive Insurance for Students Lives Coupled with PAS For International Students" (please, see below).

Exchange students are obligated to buy the National Health Insurance (please, see below).

If they get sick or injured during their stay in Japan, National Health Insurance makes it possible to receive medical treatment by only paying part of the medical expenses (partial obligation). In principle, it is possible to receive medical treatment with the payment of just 30% of the total medical care expenses.
